

1. Zilla Parishad is composed of elected representatives from various Gram Panchayats. What is the primary role of the Zilla Parishad in local self-government?
 - A. Overseeing urban planning in cities.
 - B. Managing infrastructure development at the village level.
 - C. Coordinating development activities at the district level.
 - D. Enacting laws at the state level.

2. A city in India has started a community initiative to reduce plastic waste by promoting the use of reusable bags and containers. What principle does this initiative reflect?
 - A. Environmental conservation
 - B. Profit maximization
 - C. Centralized planning
 - D. Merchandising

3. Early civilizations in India witnessed advancements in basic technologies such as metallurgy. How did the development of metallurgy impact ancient societies?
 - A. Decreased agricultural productivity
 - B. Increased trade and commerce
 - C. Increased social equality
 - D. Reduced cultural exchange

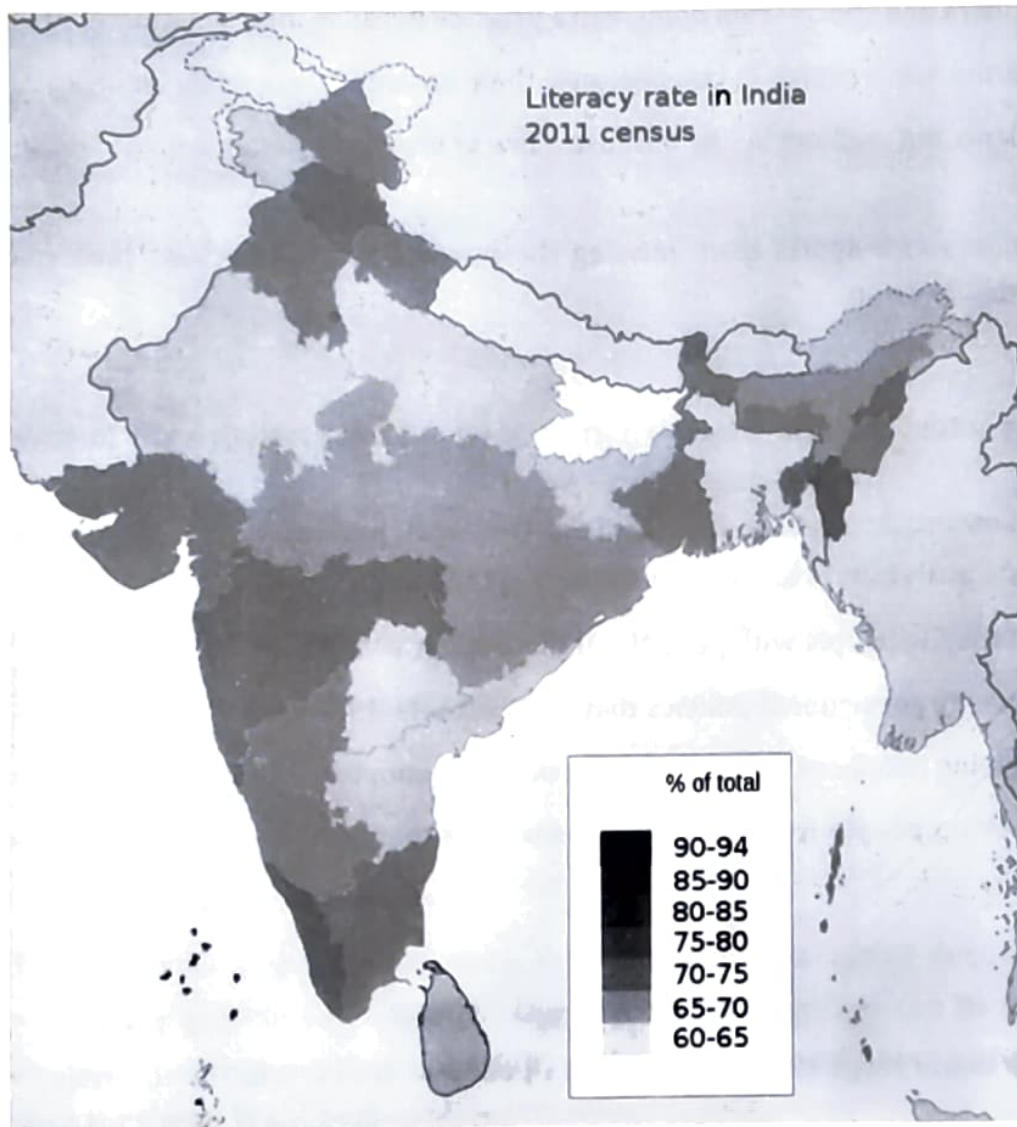

4. The presence of which type of soil makes the Coastal regions of Kerala and the Indo-Gangetic plains of North India major areas of rice production?
- A. Red soil
 - B. Laterite soil
 - C. Alluvial soil
 - D. Black soil
5. Which factor of soil formation has the greatest effect on the colour and texture of the soil?
- A. Average wind strength
 - B. Depth of the water table
 - C. Parent rock
 - D. Topography
6. Beginning in the 1970s, the local forest people movement, Chipko Movement, occurred against government-sponsored logging of forest areas in India. Which among the following was the major reason for these protests?
- A. Local people were not given access to share of the profits from logging.
 - B. Logging disrupted local peoples' cultures and ways of earning a living.
 - C. Local people wanted government support to move from the forests to cities.
 - D. Logging happened too slowly under government sponsorship.

7. A country has a high concentration of mountains in the North and fertile plains in the South. What can you infer about the likely primary sector practices in the different regions of this country?
- A. Growing crops would likely be more common in the North.
 - B. Animal herding would likely be more common in the North.
 - C. Timber production would likely be more common in the South.
 - D. Most of the country's agriculture would likely be situated in the North.
8. Plants contribute to the formation of soil from rock mostly in what way?
- A. Plant leaves provide shade that cools rocks.
 - B. Plant roots remove water from rocks.
 - C. Plant roots break up large rocks into smaller pieces.
 - D. Plant leaves shield rocks from rainfall.

9. The introduction of new crop varieties to India in the 1960s and 1970s was a part of the Green Revolution. What was a major effect of this event on farmers?
- A. Growth in the share of political power held by farmers.
 - B. Increase in the demand among farmers to re-forest unused farmland.
 - C. Expansion in the number of farmers practicing subsistence farming.
 - D. Expansion of crop yields and improvements in many farmers' incomes.
10. Imagine you buy a notebook for your use from a local store. In economic terms, what is the notebook in this scenario?
- A. Physical Capital
 - B. Consumption good
 - C. Production tool
 - D. Raw material

Note: Use the following map to answer the question 11.

The map shows state-by-state literacy rates for India, based on the 2011 census. Literacy rate is the percentage of people who can read and write.

11. According to the map, states with the highest literacy rates in India are situated in which parts of the country?
- A. The south and the northeast
 - B. The north and the west
 - C. The northwest and the east
 - D. The northeast and the east

12. The term "peer group" means a group of people in a largely equal social situation who know each other and can influence each other's behaviour. What is an example of the positive influence of a peer group?
- A. Members of a sports team doing extra practice because their teammates are doing it.
 - B. Students misbehaving in class because their classmates are misbehaving.
 - C. Students not walking in line because a few of their classmates are not walking in line either.
 - D. Members of a sports team missing the practice session because their teammates decided to do so.
13. In a democratic system like India's, political parties can legitimately try to influence individuals to support them in which way?
- A. Threatening people with penalties if they do not vote for the party.
 - B. Proposing government policies that party leaders think people will like.
 - C. Supplying people with money so that they will vote for the party.
 - D. Removing people from their families so that the party can have more power over them.
14. In India many large cities are located in coastal areas. What is the reason behind this?
- A. There is usually a greater availability of freshwater.
 - B. Winds from the ocean can keep the air cleaner.
 - C. People generally prefer the scenery of coastal areas.
 - D. Transportation of bulky goods is generally easier and cheaper because of the presence of ports.

15. Women in different parts of India wear saris, but the style, colour, and fabric can be very different from region to region. This fact best illustrates which cultural feature of modern-day India?
- A. Adaptation
 - B. Cultural lag
 - C. Cultural imposition
 - D. Unity in diversity
16. Some of the provisions of the Constitution of India allowed states to adopt their own official languages. Why were these provisions adopted?
- A. To allow states to become independent
 - B. To make it easier for culturally diverse populations to accept federal rule
 - C. To prevent states from communicating with each other
 - D. To give the central government more power over the states
17. Many items for everyday use, such as clothing, furniture, and decorations, can be made more quickly and cheaply using machinery than they can be made by hand. However, hand-made items continue to be popular, and people are ready to pay more for them. What best explains this?
- A. Hand-made items are often made of the same materials as machine-made items
 - B. Hand-made items can be found in more places than machine-made ones
 - C. Hand-made items are generally customized to the individual buyer's preferences
 - D. Hand-made items can give people a greater sense of connection to their cultural heritage

18. How did the geographical features of Magadha influence its cultural and political development?

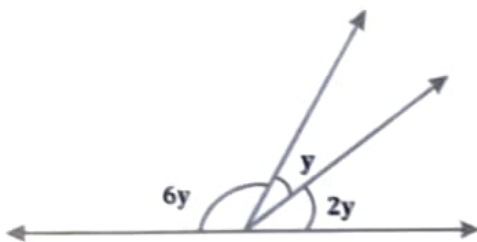

- A. The arid climate and lack of large rivers hampered agricultural development, resulting in a primarily nomadic culture.
 - B. The region's rugged environment and mineral wealth aided the formation of great kingdoms and a strong military heritage.
 - C. The Ganga River's vast plains and abundant natural resources aided agricultural prosperity, trade, and the establishment of important cultural and political centres.
 - D. The deep tropical forests and remote position hampered the development of trade and political unification, resulting in small, separated settlements.
19. Which primary source of information is the most useful for studying the Indus Valley civilization?
- A. Inscriptions on temples
 - B. Manuscripts of religious texts
 - C. Archaeological remains
 - D. Colonial administrative records

20. Which among the following ideals is NOT mentioned in the Preamble of the Indian Constitution?

- A. Sovereign
- B. Socialist
- C. Secular
- D. Federal

21. In the given figure, the value of y is:

- A. 30°
 - B. 15°
 - C. 20°
 - D. 22.5°
22. In a quadrilateral the measure of the first angle is three times the measure of the second angle. The sum of the measure of these angles is 180° . Find the measurement of each angle.
- A. $135^\circ, 45^\circ$
 - B. $90^\circ, 90^\circ$
 - C. $50^\circ, 130^\circ$
 - D. $40^\circ, 120^\circ$